Mary Immaculate

As the door of our future stands ajar, a pure flower emerges to greet us. The loveliness of this heavenly Lady fills us with a sweet peace, for she whispers words of encouragement to the Graduates. To Mary Immaculate the class of "45" lovingly dedicate this, the fourth issue of "The Call."

CAUSE OF OUR JOY

Nothing can express the supreme joy with which our souls are filled as we appear before the portals of our Church. The precious thoughts which the innermost depths of our soul wish to convey are mirrored in the faces you see wreathed in smiles. In one voice we thank the Reverend Fathers, the Sisters, and our loving parents for the great privilege of receiving our education in the shadow of the Sanctuary.

Everyone knows that our Catholic Educational system not only looks to the development of the mind, but also takes intc consideration the heart and the soul according to the doctrine of our holy Faith. On your graduation day you will say "farewell" to St. Augustine's School, but it would be sad, indeed, if the sound religious principles instilled while at school were put aside. Our papers and magazines at present refer so often to the changes which are to take place in political and economic respects after this World War, but all this should not weaken you in your holy religion. May your Catholic Faith ever be your guide, and peace and joy reign in your heart and soul.

—Father Justinian, O.F.M.

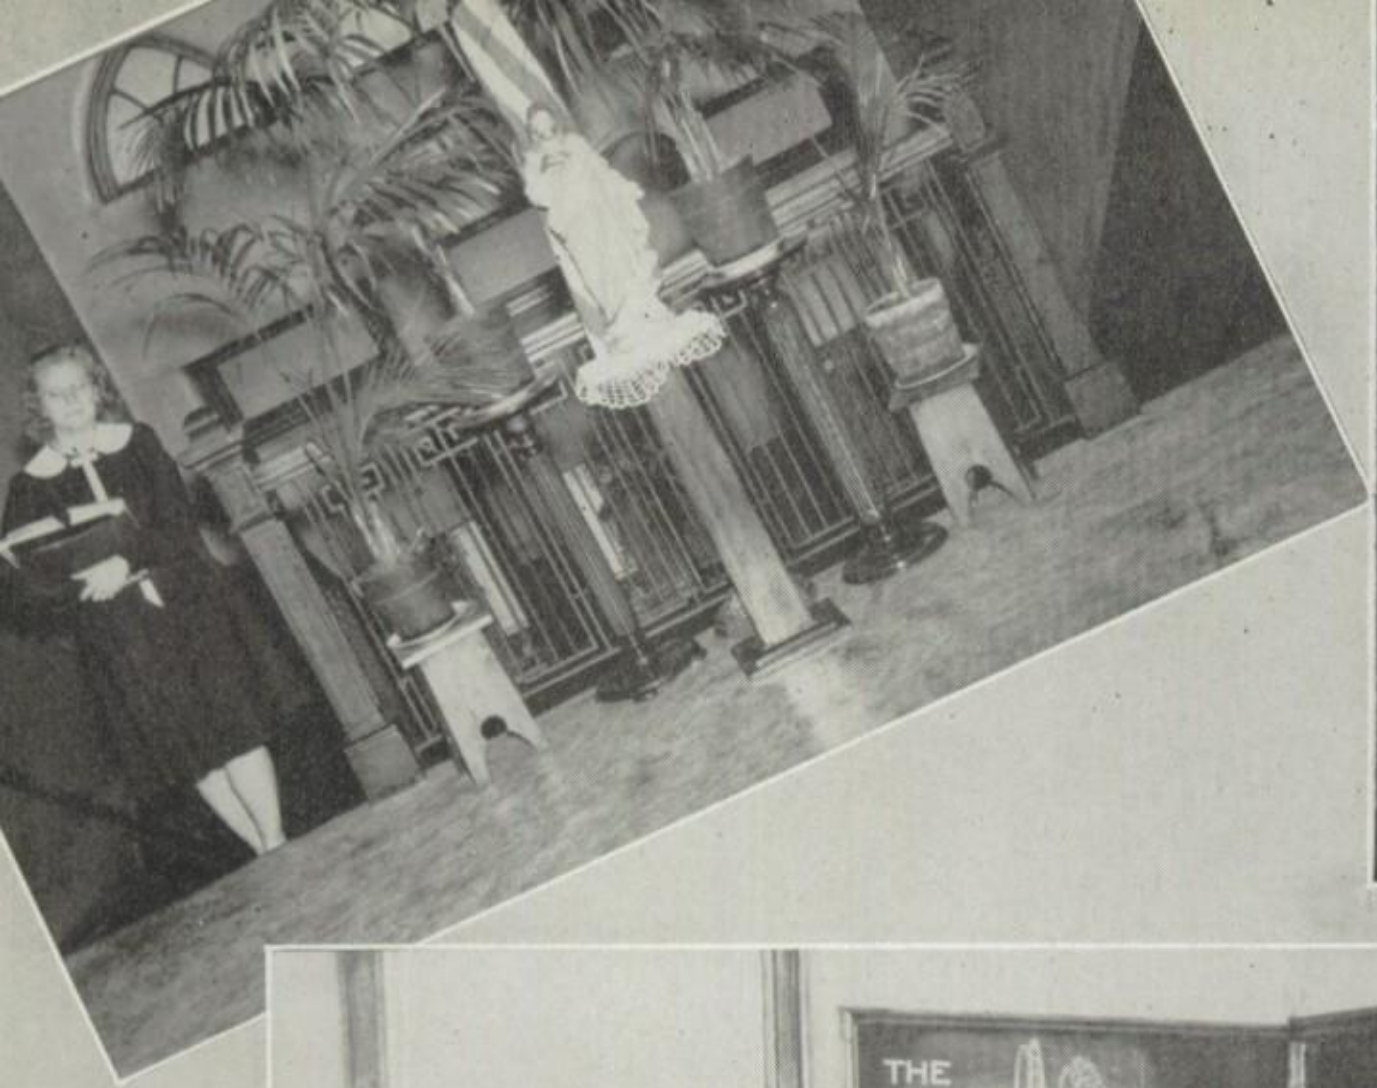
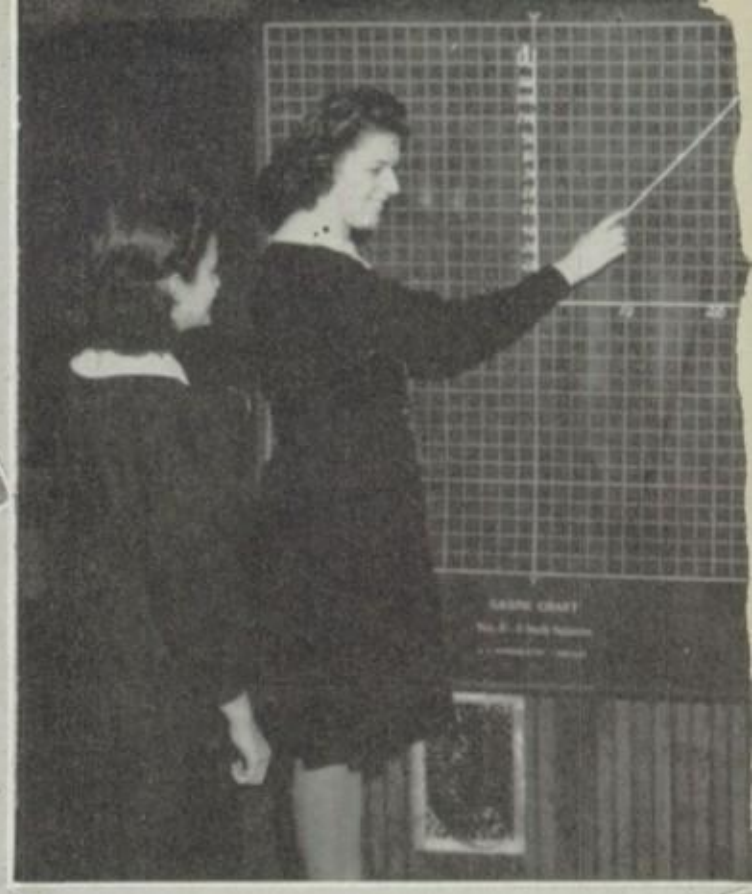
VESSEL OF HONOR

The bright gleam on the faces of these honor students portrays their attitude of heart and mind as they turn in deep appreciation to the VESSEL OF HONOR with a "THANK YOU" to her for their success as honor students of the year.

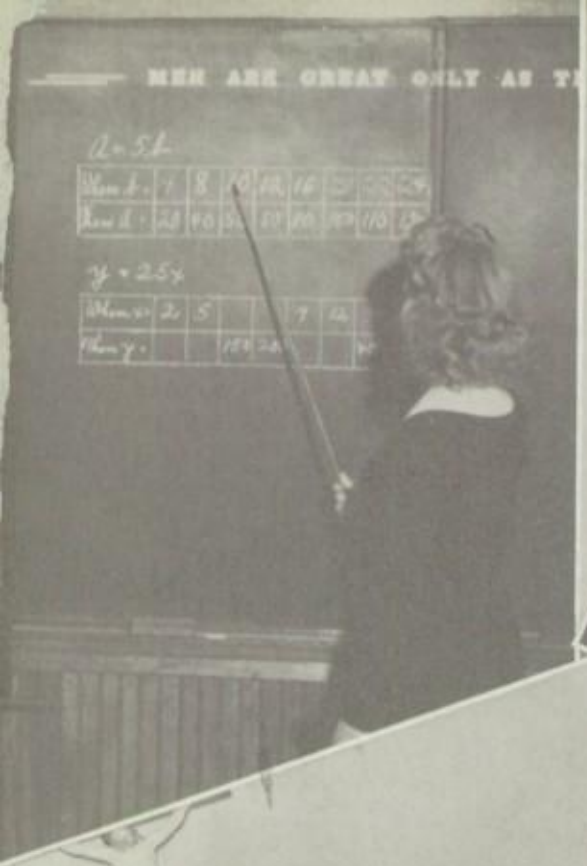


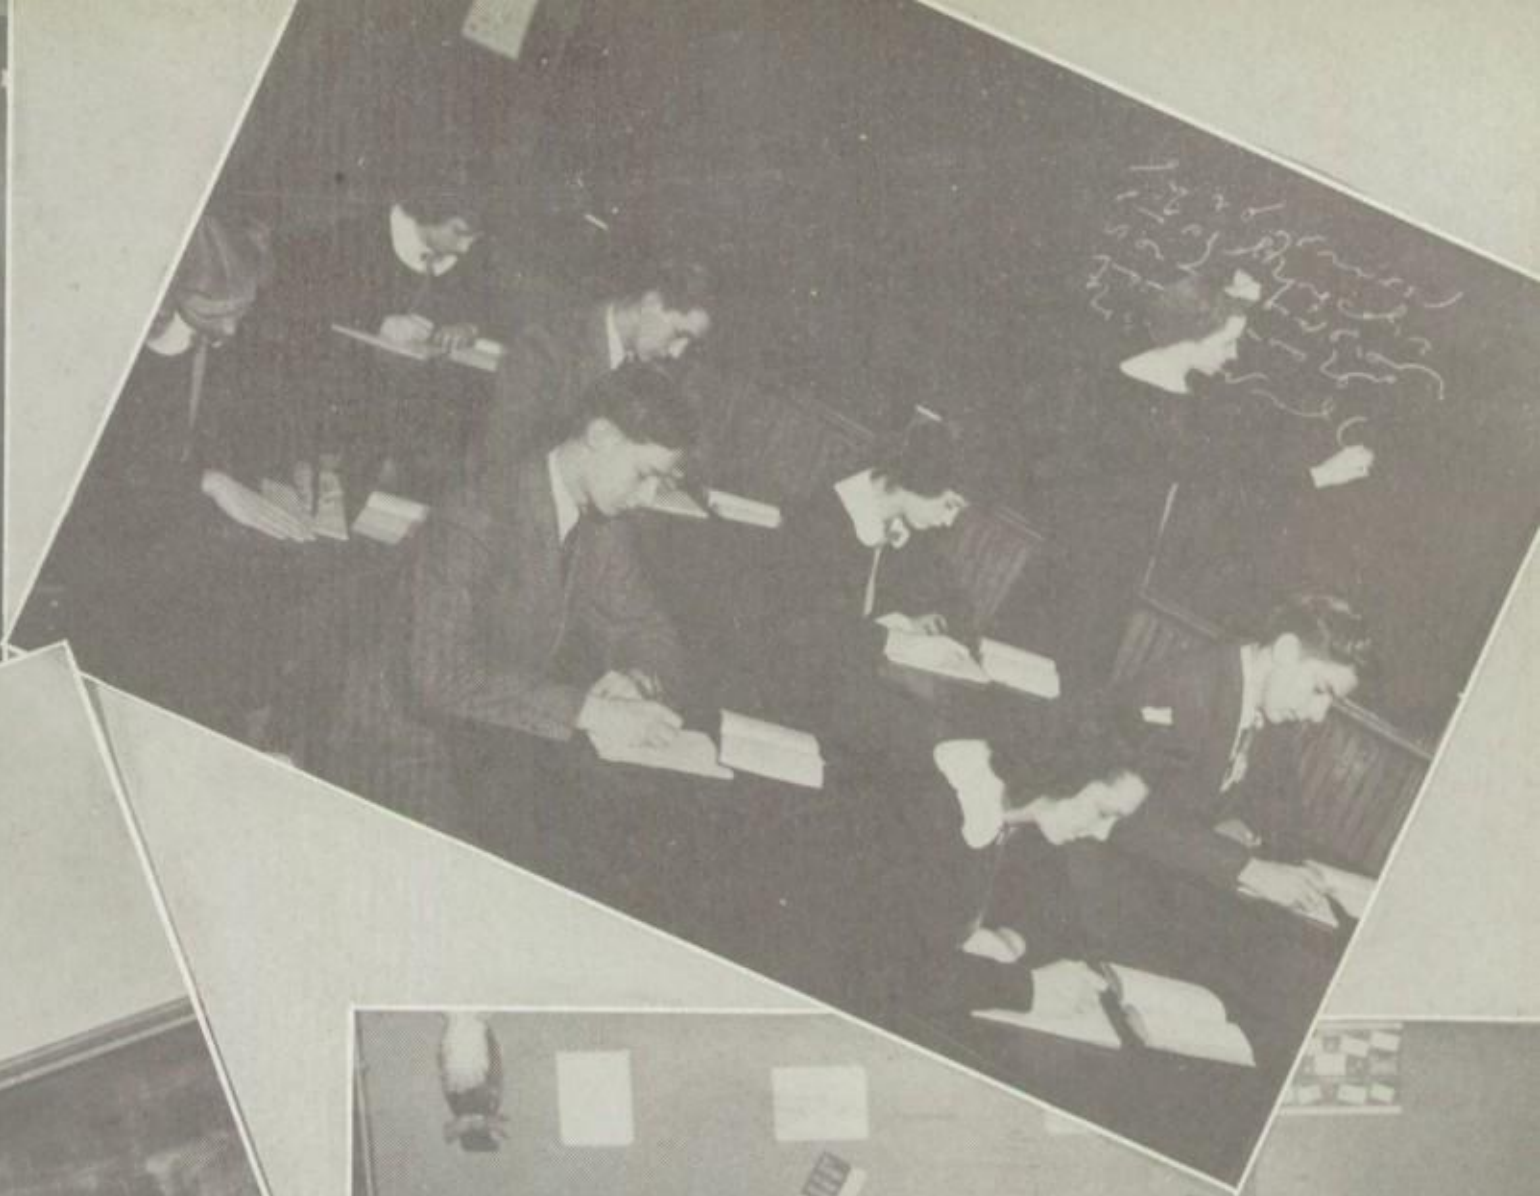


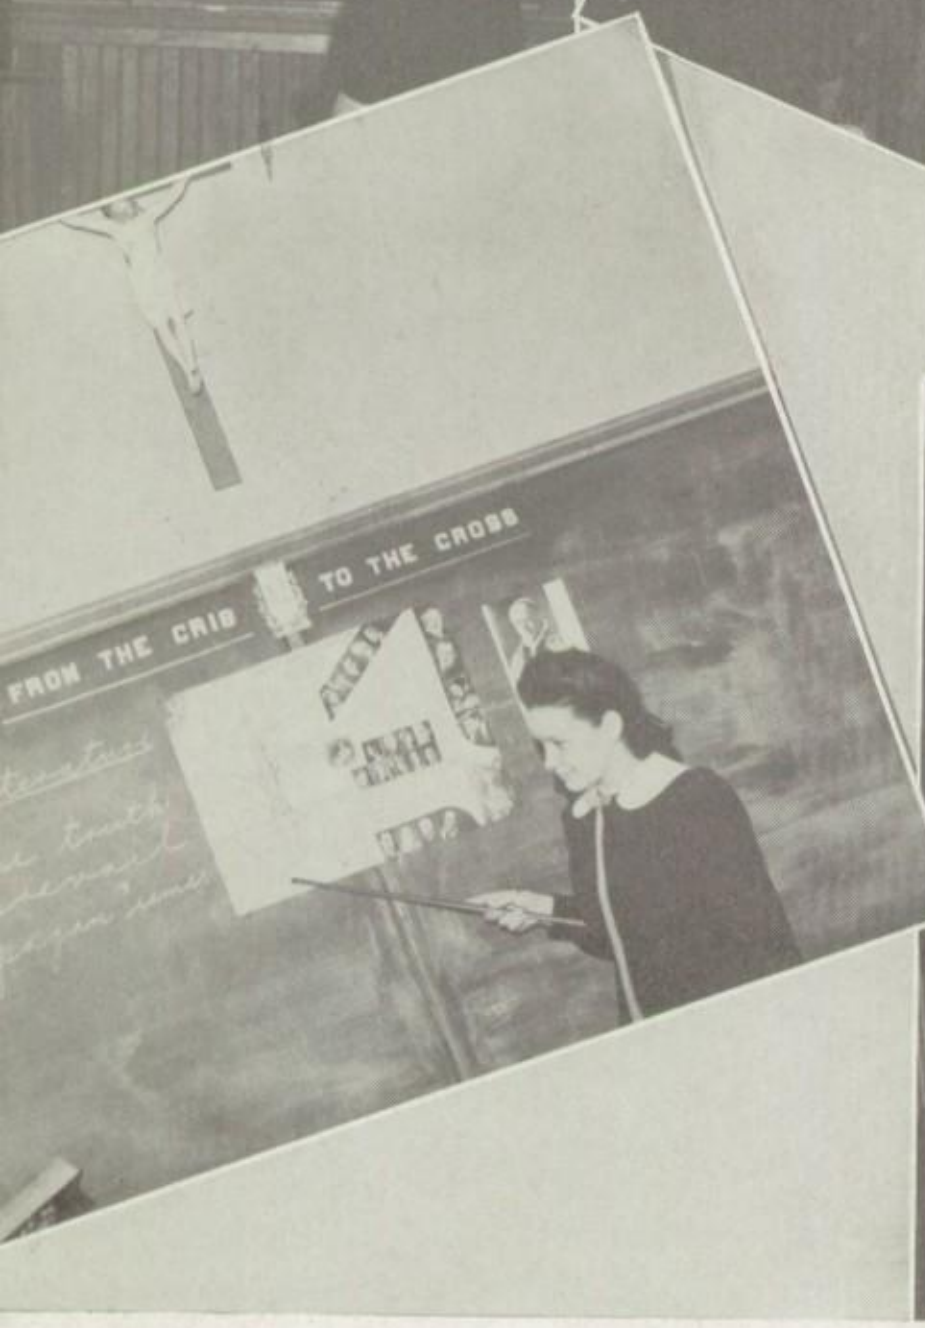
SEAT OF WISDOM

Do all of us realize that our cornerstone of life is being constructed amid immeasurable mental toil? These subjects that are imparted to us are the stairs to supremacy, the well-paved avenue towards social well-being.

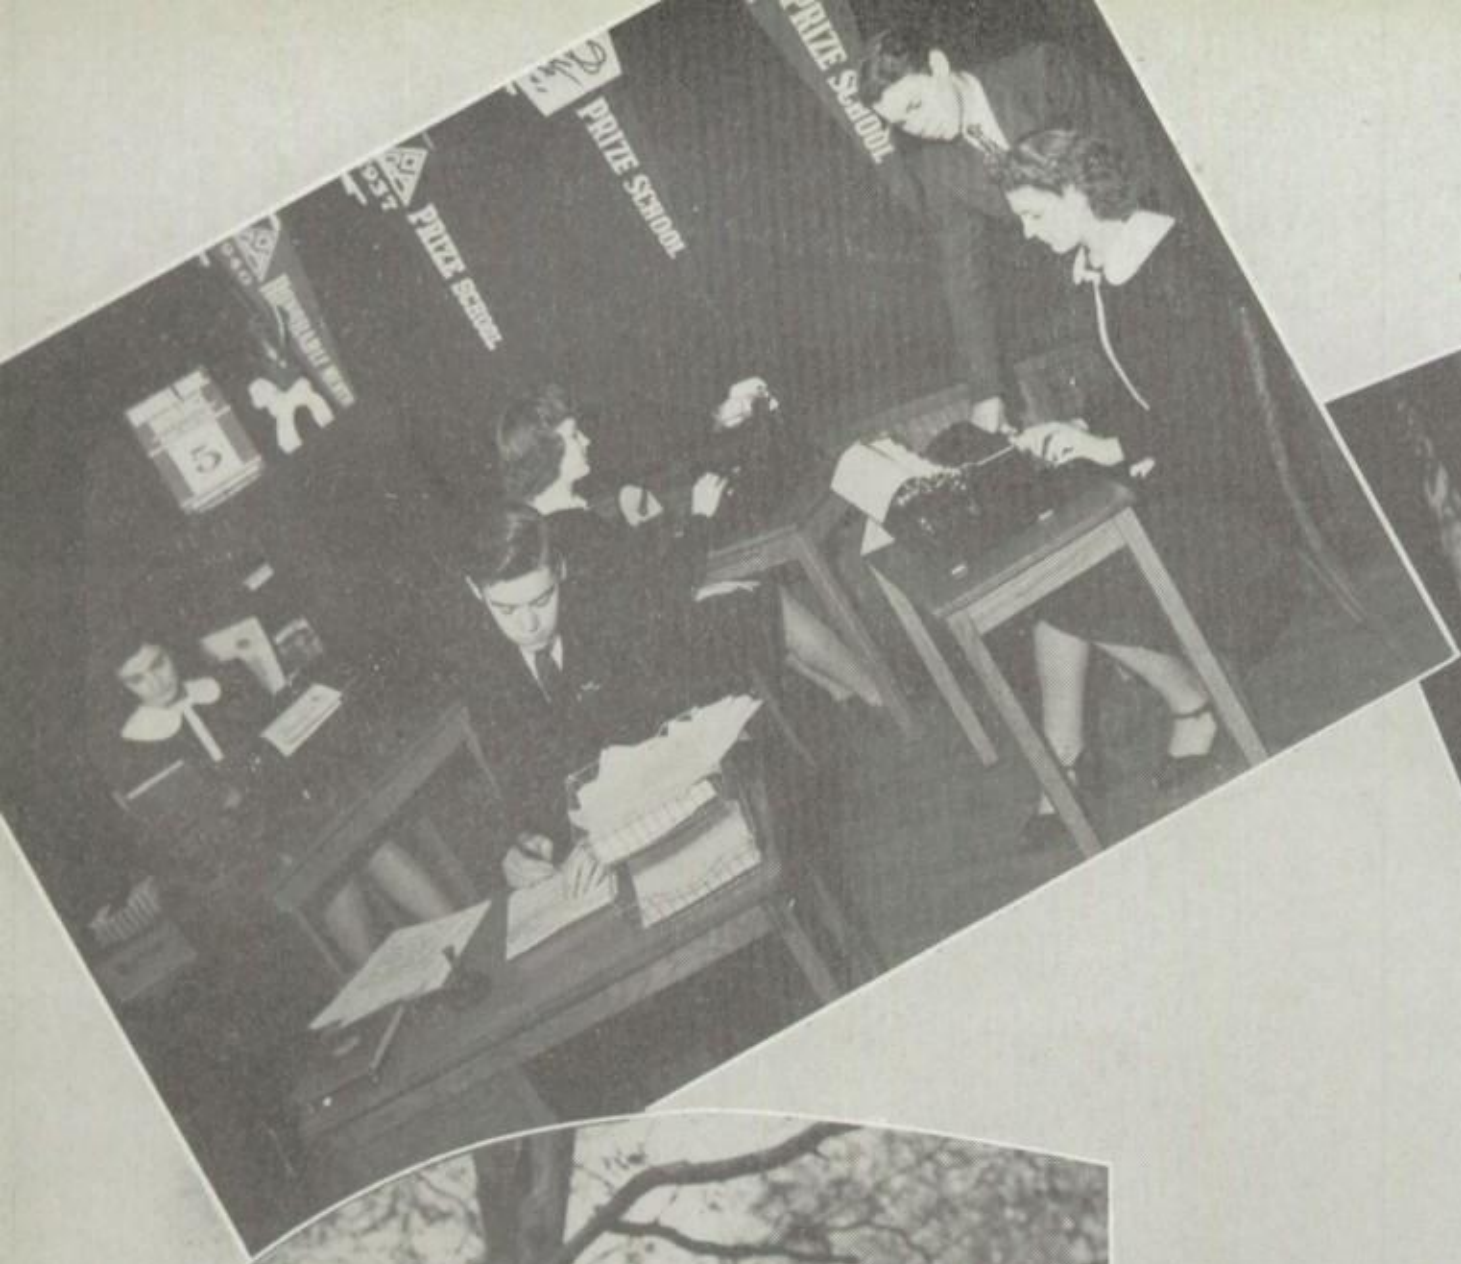
Throughout the day our classrooms assume an air of educational superiority, as the students are deeply and honestly familiarizing themselves with the well developed course of subjects under the spiritual guidance of the "Seat of Wisdom."







The door of "Life" should be easily opened upon graduation. We have been fortunate for the fine educational opportunities offered us. We have had outstanding facilities at our fingertips to widen our horizon, and our spiritual foundation has been so firmly substantiated within us, that we vouch none of the students here will ever err in the eyes of Mother Church.



The story and pictures of our subjects here draw to a conclusion, but our appreciation and gratitude will live on in the hearts and minds of an appreciative student body.

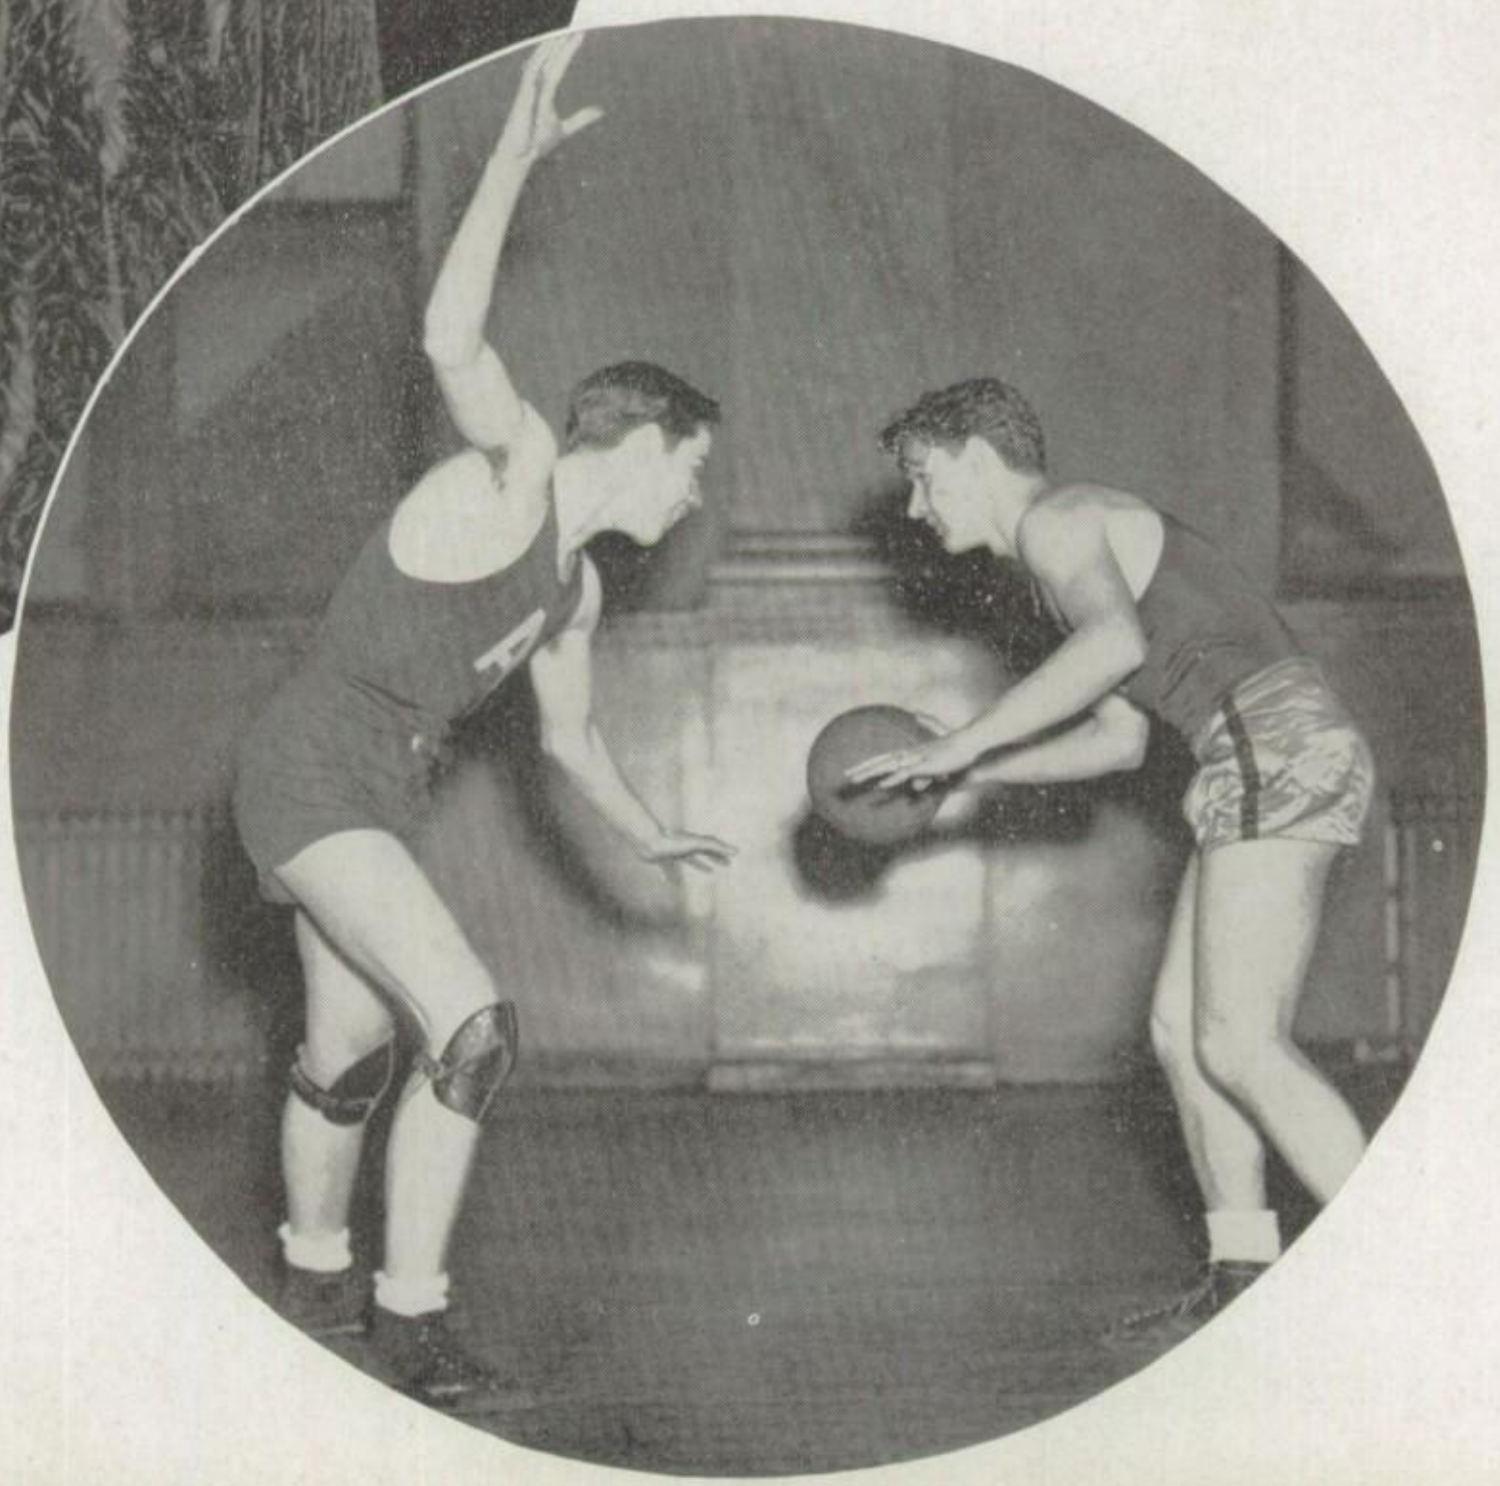
IN THE SPORTSLIGHT

Outside competition as well as intramural is looked upon with interest by all sport-minded students. Week after week they gather to show their school spirit at basketball, volleyball, and gym classes.

This year, for the first time, St. A's entered in competition in the Herald-American Basketball Tournament. The team was built around players who were on last year's intramural basketball championship and for them to capture first prize would indeed be a fitting climax to an exciting high school life.



IN THE SPORTSLIGHT

Captain Rudolph Neubek with the aid of Tom McDonald has been the sportsplug of the teams. These two, with the assistance of Robert Herman, Team Manager, have organized one of the best teams ever representing Saint A's High.

The girls also have their share of the Physical Fitness program that is so vital at this time. Thus, in order to serve our country and ourselves to the utmost, physical education works hand in hand with the mental education to insure a happy and prosperous future.

"Parting Is Such Such Sweet Sorrow"

Whenever we turn to this page of "The Call," a golden occasion will again awaken from its dreamy sleep. Of course, it will be but a journey back through the leaves of our book of memories, but we will fancy ourselves once again floating across the gleaming dance floor. The strains of joyous music will be wafted on the air as we picture ourselves on the event of the annual Prom.

GATE OF HEAVEN

With inspirational reverence, we escorted the Blessed Sacrament throughout the Church, in the annual procession climaxing Forty Hours Devotion. It carved an impressionistic design on our hearts, making us thankful that we were partakers of such a beautiful and memorable ceremony.

The Blessed Sacrament is our "Gate to Heaven," a gate that can only be opened with the key of our Christian faith.

VIRGIN MOST FAITHFUL

A more beautiful Feast could not have been selected for a RING CEREMONY than THE ESPOUSAL OF MARY on January twenty-third.

A hushed silence filled the Church; the air of expectancy reached its peak when presently white gowned Seniors proceeded slowly up the aisle. Each Senior realized that from this day forward his ring would have a new and different significance. It wouldn't be just an object to adorn one's finger; it would be a ring filled with memories and sanctioned by the sweet breath of Christ.

MORNING STAR

Class Day will always remain a cherished memory; our hearts beat proudly as the program proceeded; the precious minutes flew swiftly. We were happy and proud, it is true, yet little sparks of sadness entered our hearts for we realized that we were gathered for the last time as a class group.

A glance at the MORNING STAR, however, enkindled new hopes within us, since the rays lead our thoughts ever upward, assuring us that in the not far distant future this beautiful Morning Star guarantees a reunion over which time has no power, for together with her we'll enjoy an Eternal Class Day in the mansions of heaven.

SPIRITUAL VESSEL

Melodious tunes, sounding carols, and joyous hymns are a festive part in our Christmas program. The Senior class softly advances through the resounding halls proclaiming the Triumphant Approach of the Christ Child. The kind and eager faces of our inspired students brighten the classrooms with a glowing atmosphere. Each year this traditional procession ignites the embers of the Christmas Season.

Class Day

Each Senior stepped before the crowd,
Having reason to be proud.

Graduation

Graduation meant we must part—
A life's new work about to start.

TILL V DAY

The war Effort here at Saint Augustine is not a mere patriotic phrase. Buying bonds and stamps is something that is more or less taken for granted in our school today. A blue and white minute-man flag waves defiantly in the center of the third-floor corridor, forever proclaiming itself as a symbol of the students' 100 per cent cooperation in the weekly stamp drive. Bond buyers are by no means few.

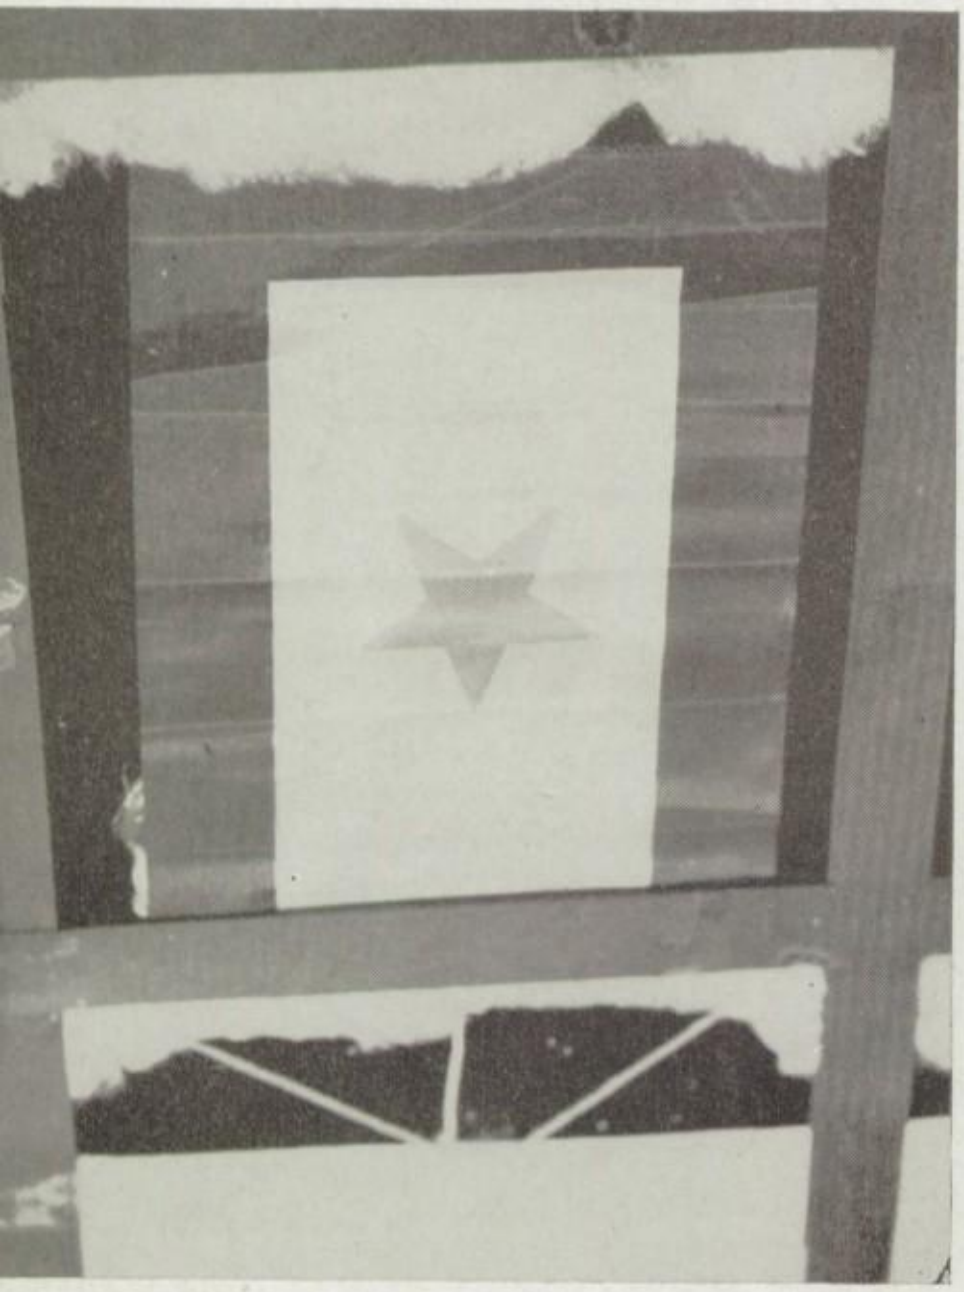
Delegates from the Senior Class attend Red Cross Rallies volunteers canvass for Red Cross donations, and, each week, the Seniors type labels for mailing the "Back of the Yards Journal" to the neighborhood boys in service.

TILL V DAY

We all do, both individually and in groups, what little bit of material good we can.

As Catholics, however, we cannot, must not, and will not stop at material help, but go further by enlisting ourselves in God's great army of spiritual workers.

At eight o'clock Mass the student body unite themselves with others all over the world to pray for the safety of our servicemen. Weekly Communion is offered for friends and relatives in uniform, and daily prayers in the classroom keep us ever conscious of the need of His presence.



VIRGIN MOST PRUDENT

After having invoked the Blessed Virgin Mother under the title, Virgin Most Prudent, for her assistance in the undertaking, we joyfully present the fourth edition of the "The Call."

It was not a few times that a pair of still lips silently whispered a prayer for help. As hours were spent in writing articles, we can remember our tired minds turning to Mary for an inspiration; she was there to guide our heart and hand.

Now, as we page through our finished product, we alone sense the sweet fruits that crown prayer and patient toil.

VIRGIN MOST POWERFUL

The keynote of success in any field is "foresight." Foresight in planning topics to satisfy each individual's choice skyrocked our "Augustinian" to success. Enthusiastic readers await with pride each publication. War affected the amount of paper used —we cut quantity, but not quality!

We are proud of, and thankful for the tireless efforts of all who helped make it so, and doubly proud to be among those who can enjoy the education and pleasure derived from publishing our school paper.

"THE CALL"

The curtain rises . . . a hush steals over the audience as the first act of our vocational play commences. In this presentation, the Laukin Family creates the setting for the Tragedy. Francis' priestly vocation forbidden! Fatal circumstances befall the members of the family.

In another scene, Francis enacts his attitude toward life since he is deprived of his "calling." The path of debauchery lures him into grievous sin; alas, murder of his beloved brother Paul cries to heaven for vengeance.

The death cell where Francis spends his last hours presents the climax, the main idea each and every player hoped to bring home to the audience. Mr. Laukin realizes his grave mistake; and yet we see God's hand in the entire picture, for Marie sacrifices her life as a religious for the conversion of Mr. Laukin and Francis' salvation.

VIRGIN MOST MERCIFUL

Joy and sorrow intermingle as we say our final farewell. The excitement of a class in cap and gown on the way to receive a diploma for which they have patiently worked four years is truly captivating. Before we enter upon this happy moment, we bid farewell to our Reverend Pastor, the Sisters, and underclassmen. On leaving you, gratitude for all you've done for us lingers within our memories. As our footsteps grow fainter, we turn to you for one favor—join us in our final chorus—PRAY FOR US since Mary has been invoked to guide our thoughts, words, and deeds.
